Earth's toil-ing end-ed, O glo-rious dawn-ing,

Be-yond the sun-set, when day is done.

O day of glad - ness, O day un - end - ing,

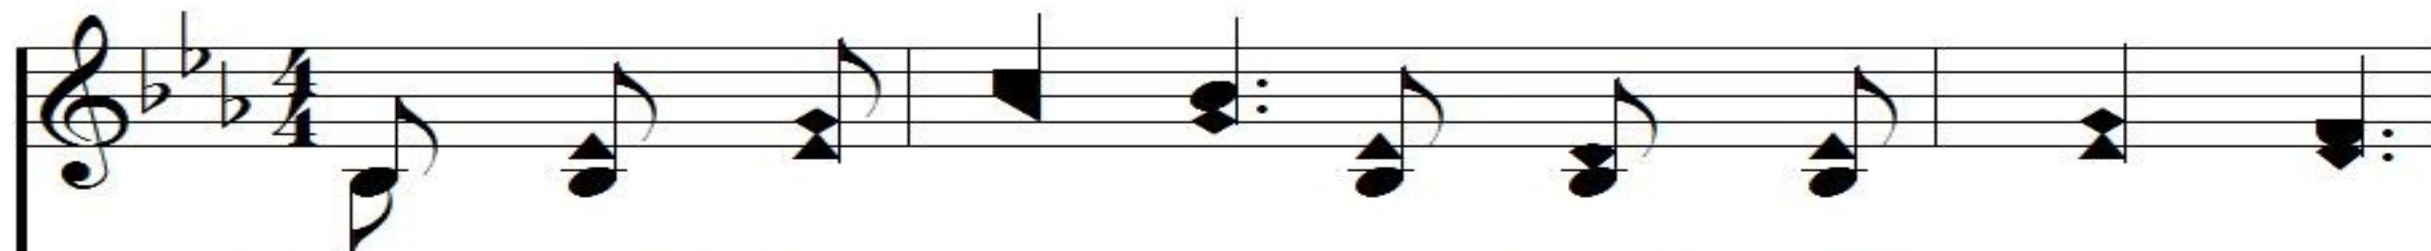

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). It contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes, ending with a repeat sign. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment of eighth and quarter notes.

rit.
Be - yond the sun - set, e - ter - nal joy!

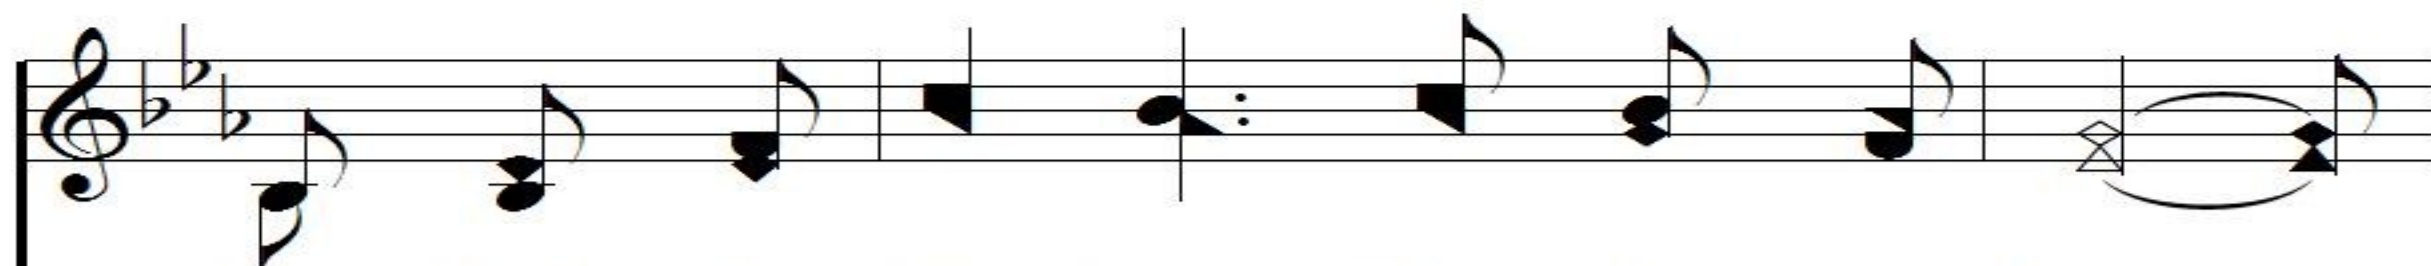

The second system of music also consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from the first system, marked with 'rit.' (ritardando). It features a key change to two flats (B-flat, E-flat) and ends with a long note. The lower staff continues the accompaniment, also ending with a long note. The system concludes with a double bar line.

His glo-rious pres-ence, His words of wel-come,

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature. It contains eight measures of music, including eighth and quarter notes, and rests. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and the same key signature and time signature. It contains eight measures of music, including eighth and quarter notes, and rests. The lyrics 'His glo-rious pres-ence, His words of wel-come,' are written below the treble staff, aligned with the first four measures.

Will be my por-tion on that fair shore.

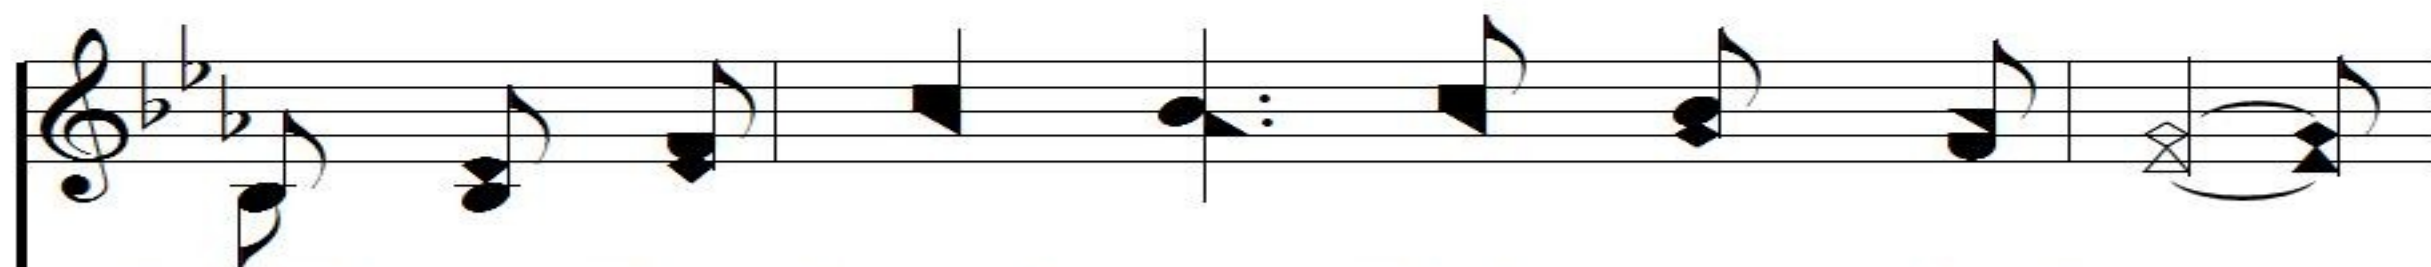

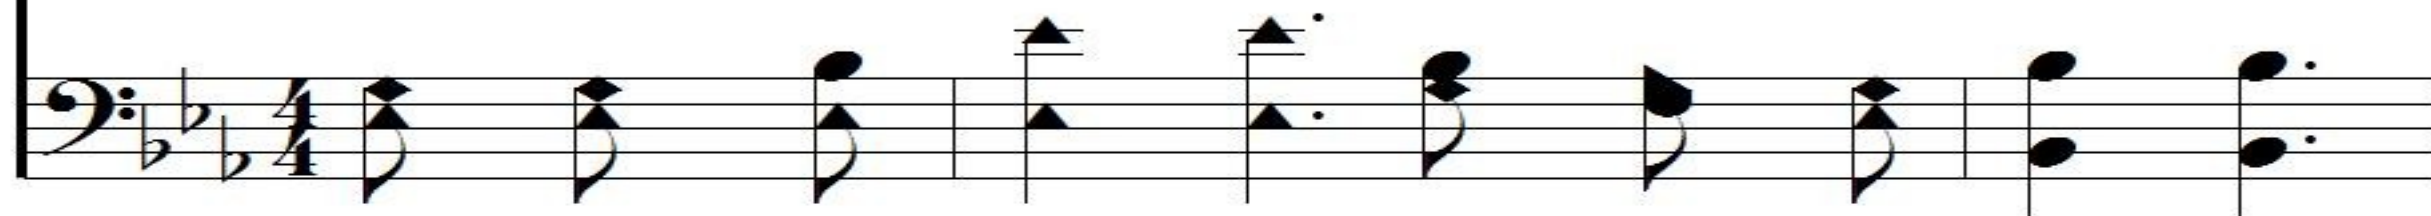

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats, and a common time signature. It contains eight measures of music, including eighth and quarter notes, and rests. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and the same key signature and time signature. It contains eight measures of music, including eighth and quarter notes, and rests. The lyrics 'Will be my por-tion on that fair shore.' are written below the treble staff, aligned with the first four measures. A 'rit.' (ritardando) marking is placed above the fifth measure of the treble staff. The system concludes with a double bar line.
